Federal League Will Aid "Holdouts"

Independents May Form Serious Menace for the Big League Organizations Before Opening of New Season.

By JOHN E. WRAY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 19.—Although the Federal league in its first season made no fight against the big league organizations, the fact that it held out for an entire season is a point that is worrying the big organizations.

Baseball players, realizing that the Federal league clubs lasted the year out, and have also agreed to put up $50,000 bonds for salaries and other debts to be incurred next year, will begin the holdout system from the close of the season. If not satisfied with terms, the Federal league seems a more secure haven than last year, when all the diamond stars deserted its future.

There is little doubt but that the Federal league will be in the field with stronger teams than this year. The independents will thus form the most serious menace to organized baseball.

Just a Side Show, Now.

To be a foe capable of dealing a mortal blow, however, the league will have to quit selling side show baseball for the big tent article.

If need be fans in St. Louis can see Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Tris Speaker and others of the big ring for just the same price as is charged in the Federal league. The newcomers will, therefore, have to offer some inducement worth while to cajole fans into leaving the big stars, the better parks and the greater conveniences of the big league, for minor players and minor equipments.

"In good time," say the Feds.

"But in the meantime," is the answer of the big leagues.

Have a guess at what both mean.

NO CRIMINAL CASES IN SANTA ROSA COURT

Santa Rosa, N. M., Sept. 19.—The fall term of district court will convene here Monday, with a very light docket. There will be no criminal cases to be heard by jury, and no petit jury has been drawn in consequence. The civil docket is also light, by reason of vacation hearings, and it is expected that not over two or three days will be consumed at this session of the court.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Commercial club this week a strong impetus was given the subject of lining the streets with shade trees, parking the plaza and school grounds, and otherwise beautifying the town. Committees were appointed to take the matter in hand and determine upon an arbor day to carry the plans into execution. The subject of good roads was discussed, and a committee designated to cooperate with the county officials along this line.

AMERICANS GET BEST SCORES IN GOLF PLAY

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 19.—The American professionals proved stronger than their English competitors yesterday in the first round of the American golf championship on the links of the Country club. Up to noon five American players had beaten the scores of Harry Vardon and Wilfrid Reid, of the English team, while Edward Ray, who started late, made poor work of the first nine holes.

COMES FROM ISLE OF MAN TO MARRY TEXAS DRUG CLERK

Austin, Tex., Sept. 19.—Traveling all the way from queer little Isle of Man, off the coast of England, to wed the man of her choice, Miss Katherine Kelly reached here and was united in marriage to Wm. F. Ryan, a local drug clerk. Mr. Ryan came to Texas about three years ago from Ireland and had known Miss Kelly in that country, they having been sweethearts.

The New Zeegler will keep up the reputation of the old with a few extra frills thrown in gratis.—Advertisement.

The above photographs were made at Long Beach, L. I., which has grown to be quite a fashionable summer resort. Miss Irene Breen is shown wearing her cutaway bathing suit. There are ruffles on the bottom of 'em, just like the ones King Charles I wore. But King Charles lost his head. Despite the gaze of thousands of admiring eyes, Miss Breen retained hers. One of the favorite pastimes on the sands at Long Beach is the holding of impromptu turkey trots. Mrs. Graham Glass and Miss Dorothy Wallace are here shown dancing in dainty costumes.

California Must Soon Supply El Paso Vegetable Market

Local Supply Is Fast Playing Out, Because of Lack of Water and Mexico Has Nothing to Supply This Year.

CALIFORNIA will soon hear the call of the wild from El Paso for vegetables, fruits and melons. For the El Paso valley supply is fast playing out and will soon be ancient history. The lack of water in the river this summer has shortened the crop and the season of fresh valley vegetables less than half what it was in former years. Cantaloupes will be scratched from the market list after this week, watermelons are already on their way, and tomatoes, corn and other valley products are now dropping from the local market like the autumn leaves.

Little aid may be expected from Mexico this winter for the suffering market. The Mexicans, strawberries and west coast tomatoes, which have always been a staple in the market in the republic, are no longer obtainable and their places must be taken by the California products.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRING TO MURDER TWO OFFICERS.
Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 19.—Charged with conspiring to murder chief of police A. J. Moore and deputy sheriff Charles Perry, Juan Soto is in the county jail. A plot to stab the officers to death has been discovered, it is claimed.

Soto and three other Mexicans, it is said, were overheard by several negro women, a Mexican woman and a negro named Williams, plotting to waylay Moore and Perry, who were expected to pass down a dark street a few minutes later.

Williams notified the police station and Soto was arrested. The three others got away.
